

“Do you, parents and sponsors, promise to fulfill these obligations?”

HONORING THE PROMISE

The occasion of your child’s Baptism deserves your care, intentional, and honest consideration on how you will fulfill your Baptismal promises. This event also gives you an opportunity to reconsider your own Christian life. For your own benefit and for the benefit of your child, please answer the question on this page. It can be a guide for you as you faithfully try to live up to your promises. As a church, we will also offer an event each year to help you and your child in “Honoring the Promise.”

Prayer is the way that we can talk with God. It is also a way for us to share joys and sorrows with each other. When will you pray together?

Devotional times with your child are not only a time to share your faith together, but they are also a good way to grow in faith. Reading Bible stories and having daily devotions will help both your child and your relationship. When will you have devotions together?

Worship participation with your child is one of the promises you make at Baptism. How often will you worship together?

Christian Education is essential for your child as you “provide for instruction in the Christian Faith.” The church will help you by providing Faith Steps and Confirmation instruction and other opportunities, but we also encourage you to learn more about your faith so that you may be a better teacher for your child. How will you and your child participate in Christian Education?

Service toward others is one way we grow into our Baptism and live out our faith. When your child is older, what are some ways you can help others?

Celebrating Baptismal Anniversaries will be a great help for your child to realize and appreciate their Baptism. What are some special things you will do to remember your child’s Baptismal Anniversary?

SPONSORS

People often wish to have sponsors, sometimes call “Godparents,” for their child. The role of a sponsor is to aid parents in the promises they made to God and their child. Sponsors, therefore, need to be people who view Baptism as a sacramental gift from God, who will regularly pray for your child, who will remember your child on the Baptismal anniversary, and who will provide a Christian witness in the way we live. This usually means that a sponsor needs to be an active member of a Christian church. In addition to the sponsors you may choose, your brothers and sisters of East Side, will also be your child’s sponsors and promise to do all these things for your child.

BAPTISMS AT EAST SIDE LUTHERAN CHURCH

We are happy and excited that you want your child to be baptized at East Side Lutheran Church. Please attend a baptism class, which is held on the third Sunday of each month at 9:30 am (pre-registration requested – call the church office). At that time you will fill out a form and can schedule your baptism. Please note that because of the important role the congregations plays in your child’s Baptism, all Baptisms take place during a worship service (8:00am, 9:30am, 11:00am, 6:00pm).

Because Baptism is a worship experience, please do not take flash photos during the service. Discrete videotaping is acceptable, and photos may be taken after the service.

HOLY BAPTISM

“Child of God, you have been sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the Cross of Christ forever.”

1300 East 10th Street Sioux Falls SD 57103-1796
605-336-3597; Fax: 605-336-8660 www.eastsidelc.org

“God, who is rich in mercy and love, gives us a new birth into a living hope through the sacrament of baptism. The power of sin is put to death in this holy flood, and we are raised with Jesus Christ to new life. We are united with all the baptized in the one body of Christ, anointed with the gift of the Holy Spirit, and sent out in mission for the life of the world.”

(Evangelical Lutheran Worship)

GOD'S PROMISES

In Holy Baptism, God promises to:

1. Make your child a child of God, for your child will be baptized in God's name (Matthew 28:19),
2. Wash your child clean of sin (Acts 22:16),
3. Give your child the Holy Spirit, which will enable your child to call upon Jesus as Lord (Titus 3:5),
4. Make your child a member of the body of Christ, the Church (Romans 6:5), and
5. Grant your child eternal life (Mark 16:16).

As the pastor pours water on your child and speaks the Word of God, it is God who addresses your child with these promises and who will faithfully accomplish them in your child. In this gift from God, your child will be born again and begin a whole new life, a life led by Christ instead of a life driven by sin. The baptismal water is the physical sign of this covenant between God and your child.

In presenting your child for Baptism you are doing a wonderful thing. You are permitting your child to receive a precious gift, God's gift of eternal love. Through Baptism, for the rest God's faithful and unconditional love.

As you bring [your child] to receive the gift of baptism, you are entrusted with gifts and responsibilities: to live with him/her among God's faithful people, bring him/her to the word of God and the holy supper, and nurture him/her in faith and prayer, so that s/he will learn to trust God, proclaim Christ through word and deed, care for others and the world God made, and work for justice and peace among all people. Parents, do you promise to help your child grow in the Christian faith and life?"

(Evangelical Lutheran Worship)

YOUR PROMISES

When you present your child for Baptism, you also make very important promises. You promise to:

1. help your child grow in faith by the devotional prayer life in your home,
2. help your child grow in faith within the community of faith, the Church, and
3. take every opportunity to show your child God's steadfast love and mercy given in Baptism.

When you present your child to receive Holy Baptism, you take upon yourself the responsibility to tell your child of the wonderful promises that God gives in Baptism. You promise to do all that you can to cultivate in your child the life of a child of God. You are promising to do such things as read the Bible with your child, worship regularly and teach him/her about the Christian faith at home, Faith Steps, Confirmation instruction, and any other way you can.

You need to consider the magnitude of the promises that God gives your child in Baptism, promises more valuable than anything the world can give. You also need to consider how foolish it would be for your child to live even one day without knowing God's love shown in Christ and through Baptism. Truly, the promises you make when you present your child for Holy Baptism are the most important promises that you will ever make to your child.

“We welcome you into the body of Christ and into the mission we share. Join us in giving praise to God and bearing God's creative and redeeming word to all the world.”

(Evangelical Lutheran Worship)

CHURCH'S PROMISES

When your child is baptized, we, your Christian brothers and sisters, promise to:

1. look upon your child as an important member of our Christian community,
2. support you in making God's promises known to your child, and
3. support you in keeping the promises that you make to your child at Baptism.

When your child is baptized during the worship service, we, the members of East Side Lutheran Church, give you and your child our word that we will help you in lifelong affirmation of faith.

We begin by giving you a Children's Bible to read with our child. We present Spark Bibles to 3rd graders, and when your child is in 5th grade, we offer First Communion instruction. Confirmation instruction begins in 7th grade, and there are many other opportunities for both Junior and Senior High Youth.

You and your child's regular attendance at the many worship opportunities we offer will also be an important way to be fed with God's Word and grow in care and concern for each other and the world.